

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION (MoA)

Name of the Society:

Vision for Education and Wisdom

Registered Office Address:

91 Modern Park, Santoshpur, Kolkata 700075 (Office on Ground Floor)

Goals

Advancement of Knowledge (Promotion of Literature, Arts, Science, or Religion)

The Society champions advanced, innovative, and interdisciplinary education by integrating emerging fields like Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, and Educational Technology into learner-centered pedagogy. Aligned with national priorities such as NEP 2020, it actively contributes to curriculum and policy reform through advocacy and expert engagement. It goes on to suggest and designs cutting-edge curricula and skill-based add-on courses tailored to academic and industry needs, enriching both school and college education. Committed to fostering excellence across diverse disciplines—including Humanities, Sciences, Commerce, Management, Engineering, and Law—the Society promotes knowledge-sharing through targeted forums, workshops, and scholarly publications. Its mission is to empower educational transformation that is inclusive, future-ready, and aligned with global and national development goals, ensuring impactful learning and progressive policy advancement across all levels of academia.

Dissemination of Knowledge

The Society is committed to fostering a vibrant academic ecosystem by organizing seminars, workshops, conferences, and conclaves that facilitate intellectual exchange, capacity building, and professional networking. It actively promotes research dissemination through peer-reviewed journals, policy briefs, working paper series, and digital repositories, thereby ensuring wider access to quality scholarship. By empowering scholars and educators with robust platforms for academic publishing, the Society strengthens the foundation of evidence-based knowledge. It also forges strategic collaborations with educational institutions, research organizations, industry leaders, and professional associations to align academic initiatives with evolving societal and industry needs. These partnerships enhance educational outcomes, encourage interdisciplinary innovation, and reinforce the relevance of academia in addressing contemporary challenges. The Society thus serves as a powerful catalyst for excellence in education, research, and policy engagement.

Preservation of Knowledge

The Society is dedicated to advancing Indic and Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) through rigorous research, documentation, and the application of India’s civilizational wisdom in contemporary contexts. It aims to build a strong network of trained IKS scholars and resource persons to support the academic integration, dissemination, and long-term preservation of traditional knowledge. A special focus is placed on the ancient traditions of Bengal and Eastern India, advocating for their inclusion in modern educational curricula. By fostering interdisciplinary learning and cultural pride (Swabhimān), the Society seeks to revive India’s intellectual legacy. Its efforts promote national identity, academic innovation, and global recognition of India's timeless wisdom. Through seminars, training, and collaborative platforms, the Society ensures IKS becomes a living, evolving part of India’s educational and cultural future.

Common Good

The Society passionately advocates for empowering educators, researchers, and learners by building inclusive, future-ready academic ecosystems. It creates vibrant platforms for emerging scholars and practitioners through community-based, field-oriented projects and robust national and international research networks. These efforts foster interdisciplinary collaboration among faculty, independent scholars, and institutions, ensuring knowledge creation transcends disciplinary silos.

Strategic partnerships with schools, colleges, and research organizations strengthen inclusive, outcome-driven education. The Society promotes equitable learning environments and mentorship frameworks, connecting experienced professionals with early-career educators and researchers to cultivate academic leadership. Through Faculty Development Programs (FDPs), thematic workshops, and pedagogical training, it nurtures professional growth and innovation.

Engaging with industry bodies, chambers of commerce, and policy stakeholders, the Society aligns academic initiatives with broader developmental goals. It promotes experiential learning, internships, and smooth school-to-college transitions, ensuring students are emotionally and professionally prepared for their futures. Special emphasis is placed on educational technology, including the development and integration of Learning Management Systems (LMS), fostering accessible and scalable learning.

The Society supports school educators through tailored programs offering innovative teaching toolkits, curriculum enhancement strategies, and peer-learning communities. Its structured mentorship and internship models are designed to nurture values, interdisciplinary understanding, and holistic thinking, creating a wisdom-driven academic culture. By championing research, equity, innovation, and collaboration, the Society ensures education becomes a transformative force—driving sustainable development, national progress, and global leadership in knowledge creation and dissemination.

Social Welfare

The Society seeks to facilitate student support by fostering entrepreneurial capabilities and promoting training for startups and innovation-driven enterprises. It aims to ensure inclusive development by extending targeted support to underprivileged students, especially those from underdeveloped districts by way of fostering entrepreneurial capability and inclusive development by promoting training for startups and innovation-driven enterprises, while extending targeted support to underprivileged students, particularly in underdeveloped districts.
